It’s time for the Patrice Way.
SOURCING CANDIDATES IS OUR SPECIALITY.

WE’VE GOT YOUR BACK.

The biggest problem most companies face today is not weak sales, soft pricing, or even too much regulation. It’s the lack of qualified managers.

With unemployment lower than it’s been in decades, it’s a candidate’s market. As your staffing partner, we can “sell” your brand, resulting in more candidates to interview.
Under 1/3 of job seekers today stay in their position for a year or longer.

LUCKILY, these loyal candidates are exactly who we find for you. Today’s GREAT candidates need to be continually marketed to and nurtured so they will choose YOU over the competition – this is part of our standard service, which we do at no fee.

If you are frustrated by the difficulty of finding and hiring qualified management, you are not alone. Most companies are having the same issue and it’s gotten worse.

This is where we come in.
Great managerial talent is your secret sauce for business success. Let us help.
