

Anthony Corpora

Mobile 440-479-3818

CEO and President US Lighting Group

Email: acorpora7@gmail.com

Bio Pragmatic professional with solid experience in leadership roles across diverse sectors. Adept at implementing strategic business plans, driving growth, and improving operations with a strong foundation in financial management and stakeholder relations. Known for a collaborative approach, dedicated to building and leading talented and motivated teams. Expertise in fostering innovation, ensuring operational efficiency, and enhancing corporate culture, with a proven track record of increasing market capitalization and shareholder value.

Skills Strategic Planning & Implementation, Leadership & Team Building, Financial Management & Analysis, Stakeholder Relations, Risk Management, Digital Transformation & Technology Integration, Corporate Social Responsibility, Marketing & Brand Development, Negotiation & Partnership Building, Crisis Prevention & Intervention.

Experience CEO, US Lighting Group (August 2021 – Present)

Led strategic restructuring and rebranding initiatives, significantly enhancing market capitalization and shareholder value through focused leadership and clear strategic direction. Spearheaded negotiations for pivotal mergers and acquisitions, expanding the company's portfolio and presence in key sectors, thereby enhancing competitive edge and market share. Implemented advanced trading technologies and platforms, improving liquidity and accessibility for investors, which contributed to a noticeable increase in daily trading volumes. Championed corporate social responsibility (CSR) initiatives, aligning operations with sustainable practices, and bolstering the company's reputation among socially conscious investors.

CEO and Founder, Cortes Campers, wholly owned and subsidiary of US Lighting Group (2021-Present)

Launched Cortes Campers, steering the company to become a market leader in innovative recreational vehicles, awarded the 2024 Lightweight Camper of the Year and 2024 Must-See Camper of the Year. Oversaw the development of a cutting-edge camper line, utilizing advanced materials and manufacturing techniques, setting new industry standards for performance and sustainability. Secured strategic partnerships, establishing a robust supply chain and extensive distribution network, facilitating rapid market penetration and brand recognition. Negotiated significant investment rounds, securing capital for R&D, production scale-up, and market expansion.

Vocational Special Education Coordinator and Crisis Prevention Instructor, Mayfield City Schools (August 2003-August 2021)

Developed and implemented vocational and educational programs for special education students, significantly enhancing their skills and employability. Designed and executed crisis prevention and intervention strategies, promoting a safer learning environment. Collaborated with teachers, parents, and external agencies to create personalized education plans, ensuring compliance with regulations. Led data-driven initiatives to track students progress, leading to targeted interventions and increased achievement.

Education Master of Arts: Educational Administration/Leadership, Ursuline College, Pepper Pike, OH (07/2021)

Specialized in Educational Administration/Leadership, acquiring the skills and knowledge necessary for leading educational institutions and programs effectively.

Bachelor of Science: Special Education (MH/OH/DH K-12). Kent State University, Kent, OH (07/2000)

Focused on Special Education, preparing to support students with diverse needs in various educational settings.

Ohio Job Training Coordinator License & Prevention Instructor, Master Level, Dual Certification, Kent State University and Crisis Prevention Institute

Earned licenses in job training coordination and certifications in crisis prevention, enhancing abilities and outcomes in vocational education in safety protocols.

